Re: Danielle Joyce v. Remark Holdings, Inc. et al.
19 CV 6244

Dear Judge Nathan,

I represent Plaintiff Danielle Joyce in the above-mentioned matter. I write to request respectfully that the Court accept Plaintiff's filing of her opposition to Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as timely, despite its submission approximately 3.5 hours after the May 28, 2021 deadline. The delay was due to a number of technological issues, which I believe stemmed from either outdated word processing software or newly discovered bugs in a template (or both).

I also request that Court strike or otherwise remove docket number 72, Counterstatement to 56.1 Statement, from the docket, as it was erroneously filed. Docket number 73 is the correct Counterstatement. It is referred to as "Corrected Counterstatement" in the opposition papers.

I apologize for the inconvenience these requests may cause.

Thank you for Your Honor's time and attention to this matter.

The Court accepts the Plaintiff's opposition for filing and will treat docket number 73 as the Plaintiff's operative Rule 56.1 counterstatement when considering the motion. SO ORDERED.
